Mukang Cho Speaks at the Real Estate Subordinated Debt Origination & Investment Forum

Wednesday, November 30, 2011, Vol. 14, No. 17

On Wednesday, November 30, 2011, Mukang Cho, CEO and Principal of In-Rel Properties, participated on panels entitled “Working With Lenders to Get a Loan Today: The Borrower Perspective” and “Bridge Lending: What Opportunities Does This Market Hold for 2012?” at Information Management Network’s Real Estate Subordinated Debt Origination & Investment Forum. The event, which took place in New York, NY, brought together executives in commercial and residential real estate to discuss the state of today’s lending and capital markets environment.

Information Management Network is a leading global organizer of institutional finance and investment conferences.
